

county ; and the supplement to an act regulating writs of error and granting appeals from the courts of common law within this province, were read the second time, passed and sent to the senate.

The bill vesting a right of dower in Elizabeth D. Hodges in the property therein mentioned, and for other purposes was read the second time, and will not pass.

The house resumed the consideration of the bill to regulate and discipline the militia of this state ; on motion by Mr. Evans the question was put, That the following clause be stricken out, to wit :

“ And whereas, in addition to the many other advantages which would result, an immense sum of money would be saved to the citizens by adopting a uniform for the state: Be it enacted, That the uniform for the infantry of this state shall be, for general officers, their aids-de-camp and brigade inspectors, long dark blue coat faced with buff, buff collar and cuffs, yellow buttons and buff under cloths, long boots and chapeaux-de-bras ; for field, company and staff officers, long dark blue coat edged with red, red collar and cuffs, white buttons, dark blue pantaloons edged with red for winter, and white under cloths for summer, black gaiters, or half boots, chapeaux-de-bras and black cockade ; for non-commissioned officers and privates, short dark blue coat, red cuffs and collar, white buttons, blue pantaloons, black gaiters and shoes or half boots ; for riflemen, dark green frock or hunting shirt and trowsers ; for cavalry, short coats and pantaloons of dark blue cloth, edged with red, long half boots, a helmet or cap of leather covered with bear skin ; for artillery, long dark blue coats faced with red, red collar and cuffs, yellow buttons, blue pantaloons, black gaiters or half boots, and chapeaux-de-bras.
